

9th Swedish Proteomics Society Symposium

21-22 November 2010, Gothenburg, Sweden

Gold Sponsors:

Introduction

This symposium is the 9th meeting organized by the Swedish Academy of Pharmaceutical Sciences and the Swedish Proteomics Society to promote the very best in the field of proteomics. The symposium serves as an important meeting place for all those interested in the field. Previous Symposia have been successfully held, each with more than 100 delegates, mainly scientists from the industry and universities. In connection with the symposium there will be a poster session and a company exhibition.

Posters Session

Delegates are encouraged to present posters. Please note your poster title in the registration form when booking and e-mail your abstract (instructions can be downloaded from the Symposium home page) to the responsible project administrator before October 22nd.
