

Marina Johansson is a long-standing Deputy Mayor for the City of Gothenburg who has held a wide range of political portfolios. Representing the Social Democrats, she currently holds the political responsibility for social affairs and public health. She is a member of the City Executive Board and the City Council.

Mrs. Johansson is a trained nurse with years of experience working within the Swedish Municipal Workers Union (Kommunal). She has a strong commitment to issues regarding security, equality and equal opportunities.

Currently residing as the President of ECAD Sweden (European Cities Against Drugs), she is also a member of the Eurocities Social Forum, a board member of Reves (European Network of Cities and Regions for the Social Economy) and a member of the both the local and national Supervisory Council overseeing the Swedish Policy Authority.