

IMP TRAINING PLACEMENT OFFER

EUROPEAN PHARMACEUTICAL STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

PARTNER

Name

Asphalion, S.L

Description

Asphalion offers full regulatory affairs consultancy services. ASPHALION offers comprehensive services for Drug Development and Regulatory Affairs to Pharma, Biotech and Medical Devices companies.

Web

www.asphalion.com

PLACEMENT

Area

Regulatory Affairs

Name

Regulatory Affairs officer

Description

The job offers an excellent opportunity to career development in the field of Regulatory Affairs, inside a company with international projection.

Job Description:

- Preparation, elaboration, and revision of registration dossiers; presentation of those to Health Agencies and/or Organisms and management of all related documents.
- Preparation of regulatory strategy dossiers or reports.
- Evaluation and revision of non-clinical and quality documentation; participation in drug development programs, in collaboration with R&D and CRO groups.
- Communication with international agents for regulatory support.

Location

Barcelona, Spain

Duration

Starting date: 10th of May 2015 (12 months)

Salary

1100 euro/month (netto)

Mandatory Qualifications

- University degree in Pharmacy
- Fluent in English required. Knowledge of Spanish or other languages highly valued.
- Proven experience with same functions in the registration field of human or veterinary medicines, APIs, medical devices or similar will be valued.
- Strong communication, planning and organization skills with multifunctional abilities. Highly client-oriented. Used to teamwork in dynamic environments.

Reception

Local IMP coordinator

APPLICATION

Deadline

25th February, 12.00 PM

More Info

- vp.mobility@epsa-online.org | Vice-President of Mobility | Domen Kutoša
- central.imp@epsa-online.org | Central IMP Coordinator | Jure Levstik