10. Student Exchange Portfolio

Student Exchange Committee (SEC) (10 Members)

The Student Exchange Committee (SEC) consists of ten members. SEC members have to be former Student Exchange Officers (SEOs). The main duty of this Committee is to provide guidance and ensure the smooth and fair running of the IPSF Student Exchange Programme (SEP).

As a SEC member you are required to be in constant communication with the Chairperson of Student Exchange and assist them with work in the following areas:

- Help IPSF member organisations in establishing or improving their exchange programmes in a scheme known as the SEC Buddy Program.
- Work on improving the documents/guidelines/manuals, in order to improve the workflow of the Student Exchange Officers.
- Managing the promotional aspects of SEP, in collaboration with the Media and Publications portfolio.
- Lead SEO meetings, organise SEO trainings, keeping constant contact with Student Exchange Officers.
- Oversee the Student Exchange Database and aid in resolving disciplinary issues arising in the programme.
- Decide together with the Chairperson of Student Exchange, Treasurer, DF Coordinator and DF Committee the DF SEP Grant recipients.

- Promote and investigate the implementation of SEP in IPSF Member associations who are not part of the project yet, as well as in all non-IPSF Member countries, in collaboration with the Regional Offices.

The Chairperson of Student Exchange and SEC members gather for a meeting once a year, where important issues pertaining to SEP are discussed. It is usually held after the second IPSF Executive meeting (usually March-April) but when and where it is held is up to the Chairperson and SEC members of the particular work year.

SEC members are required to be contactable regularly via email and need to be able to respond promptly to messages. Hence good and regular email access is required. A time commitment of about 15 hours per week can be expected.

For further information please contact the Chairperson of Student Exchange at: sep@ipsf.org using subject heading 'SEC interest'.
