

NFS

Nordens Fackliga Samorganisation
Pohjolan Ammatillinen Yhteisjärjestö
Council of Nordic Trade Unions
Conseil des Syndicats Nordiques
Rat Nordischer Gewerkschaften

Maria Häggman
Policy Officer

Project: Workers' rights in the Baltics

---

- An analysis of the Baltic Countries: Determining whether any given legislation or practice complies with the ILO core conventions and Convention 144 on social Dialogue
- Independent and impartial
- Focus on core conventions and C144
- Legislation and Practice
- Tangible results that can be used in political work and in relation to the ILO structures

Project Outline

---

- A. Historic, economic and ideological background describing the reality of the Baltic labour markets and the roles of trade unions.
- B. A description of current legislation in relation to ILO conventions (Core conventions and C144)
- C. A description of current practice in the Baltic Countries with regards to the labour market and Trade Union rights as well as the social dialogue. Including practical cases and examples from the field

Timeline

---

Spring and summer 2016

- Discussions about priorities in NFS, decision in NFS board
- Discussion with Baltic confederations

Autumn 2016

- Project plan adapted by the NFS presidium
- Steering group
- Initiation of project parts A and B

Spring and summer 2017

- Initiation of part C (January)
- Workshop (June?)

Autumn 2017

- Presentation of report

---

Thank you!

maria@nfs.net

www.nfs.net

För ett hållbart, konkurrenskraftigt Norden